

Starry, Starry Night

A real snowflake can be hard to catch, but with these toilet-paper rolls disguised as sparkly, snowy crystals, the kids can hang on to them forever!

Good for ages: 4 and up

What you'll need:

- empty toilet paper rolls (each roll makes about one star)
- scissors
- white paint
- glue
- clothespins
- white glitter

How to make it: Grab some old toilet paper rolls, and cut them into $\frac{3}{4}$ " rings. Glue the tips of five rings together, and use a clothespin to hold them together as they dry. Then paint each one white. While it's still wet, sprinkle with glitter to get the shimmer of a starry night.
