

Life in the Sea

Have children select a sea creature that they would like to be. Then have them write about themselves as that animal. What kind of creature would they be? Have them describe themselves and tell about life in the sea. How would they survive and keep safe from their enemies? What would they eat? Would they live alone or with other sea animals?

Name

Date

Life in the Sea

I live in the sea. I am . . .

